HUNS ARE HELD BY ALLIES WILSON APPEAL FOR MOONEY

New Blow Expected—70,000 Prisoners Hun Claim—Labor Agreement Signed—Allies Help Siberia General

BRITISH AND FRENCH FORCES HOLD HUN

LONDON, March 29.—By a series of powerful counter thrusts, delivered by the British north of the Somme River, ground was gained from the Germans and a number of German prisoners and machine guns were captured, the war office reported today.

BRITISH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, March 29.—The Germans were able to penetrate Marcelcave, twelve miles east of Amiens in the region south of the Somme, only by means of heavy massed attacks late yesterday, which gradually forced the British back.

GERMANS TO LAUNCH BLOW ON NEW FRONT

AMSTERDAM, March 29.—The German supreme command is about to deliver a new and mighty blow on another part of the front which will "tear a new hole in the already pierced enemy ring," the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin declares.

PARIS, March 29—The long range bombardment of Paris was resumed shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

BRITISH PRESSED BACK LONDON REPORTS

LONDON, March 29.—Heavy fighting has taken place south of the Somme, in which the British have been pressed back to a line running west of Hamel, Marceelcave and Demum, says this evening's war office announcement.

70,000 PRISONERS IS BERLIN'S CLAIM

BERLIN, March 29, via London—Since the beginning of the great battle now in progress the German forces have taken 70,000 prisoners and 1100 guns, says today's army headquarters report.

NATIONAL LABOR AGREEMENT SIGNED

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A national labor agreement for the duration of the war and giving a sweeping victory to trade unionism was signed this afternoon by the representatives of capital and labor, in the labor planning board. The signing of the agreement followed a dramatic session of the board.

PARDON ASKED FOR MOONEY BY WILSON

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—President Wilson today telegraphed to Governor William D. Stephens asking that executive clemency be extended to Thomas J. Mooney, now under sentence of death as one of the preparedness parade bomb conspirators.

This is the second communication that Governor Stephens has received from President Wilson asking official intervention to give Mooney a new trial.

The first communication sent in Mooney's behalf followed the report of the Federal Mediation Commission, headed by Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson, asking the President to intercede to obtain a new trial for Mooney.

Governor Stephens has said that he would not announce his course in the Mooney case until it had passed through the regular court channels that would bring the case squarely before him.

ALLY GUNS SENT TO SIBERIA GENERAL

PEKING, March 29.—Japanese, French and British field guns have been forwarded to General Semenoff, the anti-Bolshevik leader, whose troops have been opposing the Bolshevik forces in Manchuria. The Japanese general, Nakajima, has arrived—place not given.

RUSSIAN CRUISER SUNK BY MINE

LONDON, March 29.—The sinking by a mine in the harbor at Reval, on the Gulf of Finland, of the Russian cruiser Admiral Markaroff, is reported in a Petrograd dispatch to Copenhagen, as forwarded from that point by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

PERSHING OFFERS U. S. ARMY TO FRENCH

PARIS, March 29.—General Pershing called on General Foch at headquarters yesterday, according to L'Information, and placed at his disposal the whole resources of the Ameriran army for employment in the battle now in progress.

FOCH SUPREME COMMANDER

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Official information has reached Washington that General Foch, the French chief of staff, has been appointed to supreme command of all the allied and American forces in France.

This means unification of all the armies opposing the Germans, a step which the American and French military men long have urged and which apparently has been brought about by recognition of the imperative demand for concentrated effort to hurl back the gigantic thrust of the enemy in France.

BIG GUN KILLS SEVENTY-FIVE

PARIS, March 29.—Seventy-five persons were killed and ninety wounded, most of them women and children, when a shell fired by a German long-range gun fell on a church in the region of Paris while Good Friday services were being held, according to an official communication issued this evening.

Among those killed was H. Stroehlin, counsellor of the Swiss Legation in Paris.

High School Trustees Elected

The election for High School trustees was held yesterday and Joseph Brooks and Walter Hoffman were re-elected.

There were but 435 votes cast, the voters being entirely apathetic, all leaving somebody else to do the voting.

The board of election consisted of Mrs. C. S. Gibson, Mrs. W. A. Boone and Mrs. R. Greathouse.

Webster McWhorter is spending his vacation with friends in Oakland.

$258,000 is Our Quota of Loan

Richmond's share of the Third Liberty Loan is $258,000, while the county's share is $834,000. This is somewhat lower than the previous quotas and an effort will be made by the Loan Drive committee, headed by J. C. Crary, to raise 50 per cent more than the quota.

The drive will open April 6 with a demonstration and it is felt that Richmond will "go over the top" as she did on the two previous occasions.

Bank of Pinole Elects Directors

At the beeting of the board of directors of the Bank of Pinole on March 27th Mr. G. F. Olsen, superintendent of the Union Oil Company at Oleum, was elected to the board.

The board of directors now consists of the following gentlemen: E. M. Downer, president; John Connors, vice-president; L. E. Hart, cashier. The directors are: J. A. Fraser, Dr. M. L. Fernandez, G. F. Olsen, J. P. Tormey, Warren Davis, S. S. MacKinlay.

The capital of the bank has been increased from $50,000 to $100,000.

SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE OF NEWS SUCCESSFUL

It Is Not Falling Down Like the Hun Drive On the West Front. Hundreds Already Enrolled

Von Hindenburg's drive is falling down, but the big drive here in Richmond and all over Contra Costa county for a whopping big list of new subscribers for the News is slowly but surely winning out, and is going to be a big success by the end of April, when it ends.

And why shouldn't it? The News is a good local paper, giving about all the news there is going on of a local nature, with a synopsis of the war news, county events, and a live editorial department. It is also the officially endorsed newspaper of this county by organized labor, both central bodies giving it official endorsement under seal and asking all locals and all members of organized labor in the county to become subscribers.

And in addition to this, the good men and women all over this town and county who are interested in temperance have likewise taken an interest in this drive, because of the good and persistent work the News has done for that splendid cause, and are enrolling on the list of News readers.

We should feel very disappointed and discouraged if this should be otherwise, for the News has fought for the cause of the poor man and the working man at all times and under all circumstances, oftimes when it was a losing game, financially, to do so, and the same is true as to the temperance movement. These are two great causes which this paper espouses, and it is only fair that the people interested in these causes should respond at least to the extent of taking the paper that is on their side.

In the contest now going on we are giving away hundreds of dollars in prizes and commissions, guaranteeing good wages for those who get out and help, and at the close are to put on a great motion picture play, written and put on the reels right here in Richmond and made up for the most part of local talent. The play will be shown here first, and then all over the country by the Alta Picture Company, and those of the actors who show any talent whatever in this line will be given every opportunity to obtain good paying positions in that dramatic art, which is now considered everywhere as one of the best avocations going.

We ask the working men and women of Richmond and the county to take an interest in this big subscription drive, and feel that they should do so. And we also ask the temperance people to do likewise. You all know yourselves that it is hard to keep up a glorious battle all the time without encouragement.

The votes are free. Help some worthy candidate, whose name is printed elsewhere, or nominate a new one, just as you wish—but at least let us hear from you, one way or the other.

Home Building Increase Here

Building activities are increasing here day by day, probably on account of the pleasant weather that we have been having, or perhaps because of the campaign being waged along that line by the News.

Whatever it is, at anyrate the permits issued increase daily, and so with it the building, which speaks well for the future of Richmond.

The California Wine Association heads the list with four cottages, to be built at Winehaven, two to cost $1800 and the others $1200.

F. J. Frost will erect a modern cottage on Ripley, between Fifth and Sixth, and will cost $2750.

J. A. Rolph will build an up-to-date cottage on Buena Vista, near Martini, and will cost $2550.

B. C. Anderson will remodel his bungalow on Willow, near Portrero, and build a good sized addition to it at a cost of $150.

Something new is always happening. Last night we noticed a lady who got off the street car turn around and close the door.

Fish Meeting at San Francisco

J. B. Ogborn, local member of the trans-bay fish and food commission, attended a meeting of that committee yesterday afternoon in Commissioner Merritt's office in San Francisco. There were present members from Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda and San Francisco, and a very interesting meeting was the result.

So far nothing of importance for the relief of the consumer has been accomplished, because of the stiff fight which the fish trust keeps putting up, but a plan was outlined yesterday under which it is believed relief for the general public from exorbitant prices will be brought about in a few weeks. It is a difficult problem, and one which the state and federal governments should handle without gloves. You can buy all the good fish you want from a peddler out of his wagon anywhere in the rural districts for five cents a pound, while everybody in the towns and cities are made to pay twice that for the same fish. The trust will not allow these peddlers to do business in the towns at all, upon penalty of having their supplies cut off.

MANY WOMEN BANK HERE

A very large per cent of our depositors and patrons are women, and we're adding more every day. Women appreciate the courtesy they receive here. One tells another, and thus the long list grows.

It has been our effort to make this a bank with which women as well as men like to do business.

YEOMAN SOCIAL

The Yeomen met in Moose Hall last night and had a pleasant social after the disposal of business. Easter hats were trimmed by the men, T. Kitchen capturing first prize, a live rabbit and Easter eggs. J. Crow obliged with a war song. Dancing followed.

DANCE BY DANCING CLASS

A class of girls from the Bartlett Studio of Dancing of Berkeley will entertain at the dance to be held tonight by the Richmond dancing class of Mrs. Bartlett, with Russian ballet and other classic dances.

The tickets sell for 50 cents and a royal time is assured all.

Johnny Hartnett's wife is away for a few days, and looking out the back window yesterday he noticed that the weeds were taking the garden, so he grabbed a hoe and got busy, and will surprise her when she gets back—if he don't get too tired in the back.

Miss Jane Breck has a few friends out in the field doing good work for her candidacy in the News contest, and we would not be surprised if they had somethin up their sleeves. We asked one fellow who is working up country how he was getting along, and he only winked the other eye and said we would not hear from him for a month, and then he would be in and swamp the shop.

John Deadrich's stenotype school is getting to be quite a popular place, with all kinds of pretty girls and industrious youths around and at work. We would get a stenotyper and a dictaphone, if soomebody would only invent one other machine to be a connecting link between the two—then we wouldn't have anything to do at all.

Bill Woolslayer, late high school pupil and football captain, has enlisted in the navy. He looks real nifty in his uniform.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS SEW

Members of the local Royal Neighbors lodge met at the home of Mrs. O. . Miller, 440 First street, yesterday and sewed for the Red Cross.

The large crowd of ladies enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon and accomplished a lot of good work. A dainty luncheon was served at noon by the hostess.

The next meeting for the same purpose will be at the home of Mrs. Henry Bohner, 1908 Nevin avenue, next Friday. The ladies are requested to bring their lunch.

Assistant District Attorney Hiram Jacobs is suffering from an attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. S. T. Gillett was operated on for appendicitis at the Craven Hospital yesterday.

Mrs. James Lester of Santa Rosa is here visiting with relatives and taking care of business interests.

E. H. Harlow left last evening for Los Angeles to attend the funeral of Master Mechanic McBean of the Santa Fe.

Miss Gene Torr, who has been employed at the Beckhaus grocery at Twelfth and Macdonald, left this morning for Monte Reo, where she will spend the summer with her parents.

Mrs. Harvey Mills, who has been at San Diego while her husband was stationed at Camp Kearny, arrived home last evening to remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Claver. Sergeant Mills has been sent East en route to "over there."

Mr. Byer, at 1010 Macdonald avenue, is spreading out considerable, and we are looking for him to drop in here with a good cigar most any time. He has added an ice cream parlor and is enlarging otherwise. Incidentally it may be said that Byer is all right.

NO MIDDLE GROUND

There is no way around the question—if a man is against the adoption of the Federal Prohibition Amendment, State's rights or no State's rights, he is in favor of reestablishing the open saloon. There is no middle ground upon which any man can stand—it's whisky or no whisky.—Richmond News.

By Golly, there's no use in arguing with a prohibitionist.—Byron Times.

You said something that time, son. There is no use arguing, because there is no middle ground. It is just the same as it is with patriotism and this war. You are either for America and against Germany, or you are not. Those not for us are against us. There is no middle ground. And so it is with the booze question. You are either for liquor or against it, one of the two. You can't be both.

All this blab about a little beer and a little wine is the worst kind of bunk. The average man who will drink a little beer and a little wine will also upon occasions drink a little wisky, and upon other occasions drink a whole lot of it and make an infernal ass of himself.

There is only one way to beat the booze game, and that is to let it alone, wholly and totally, and then you are safe, and any other way is not safe. Those of us who have been the route know this to be true. It is always the little nip that starts the whole bad business. If there had been no first one it is a cinch there would not have been a second, third or any other number. No man needs liquor. Every man who fools around it even a little is very foolish and doing himself an injustice. Cut the whole bloomin' business out and be a man, and a manly man. There is no middle ground.

Roosevelt urges an army of five million men and preparations for three more years of war. We trust the Colonel will not continue the war unduly after peace has been declared. Enough is plenty.

The government showing as to areoplanes is certainly very weak and lame. The Senate is right in calling for the facts and a rigid investigation. If, as alleged spies in the works are doing damage, then it is time for the firing squad.

MY SIDE-PARTNER

Whatever way my feet may take I go it with a song
Because the love o' you, my dear, is journeyin' along;
It does not matter if the drouth has burned the country brown,
And if the dust is on the trees and stifling in the town,
Or if the gray of muggy clouds have curtained heaven's blue,
My ways are happy ways, because I'm journeyin' with you;
I do not mind the bouldered ways, or mind the pantin' rise,
Because you go the way with me, with lovin' in your eyes.

The Germans are not having as easy time walking through the American line as von Hindenburg and the other officers told the men in the ranks they would have. Fact is the Americans have proven their ability to be rated as top-notch fighters, notwithstanding such activity is altogether out of their line and former education. Fritz will be shown several things not down in his catalogue before this war is ended.

The next edition of the Standard Dictionary will have to revise its definition of the word "drive" so as to include "an incessant, persistent, and merciless manifestation of human energy having for its purpose the acquirement for public purposes of any moneys a person may have loose in his pocket or in the form of a credit balance at the bank."

The home with two or three boys in it is missing a great opportunity right now if they are not preparing a good garden for spring and summer. A few hours' work each day, and later on still less work, but watchful care all along, will produce vegetables which will make the table shine and those who sit at it happy and contented to the value of more than a hundred dollars.

Sooner or later—it is inevitable—the mutton-headed proletariat will begin to insist that the fatalities of the aviation camps are unreasonably large, and demand the blueprints of the whys and wherefores.

We admire the cheerful cuss who often says. "It mighta been worse."

FOLLOW THE FLAG

Our sons and brothers have followed Old Glory to France to guard and sustain it there. On the battle field they give their lives to keep the last tattered shred at the head of their noble columns.

We are here safe and secure from all possible harm, and many of us are so little concerned that we don't even bother to display the emblem of our nation. This condition is deplorable. If we observe as we pass down the streets of the average city we see the vacant flag poles, with no other adornment but ropes flapping in the breeze.

This is not right. There is room in every window, or above every door for a clean, respectable looking United States flag.

Citizens, let's emulate our sons in just one respect here—follow the flag.

Easter Program at Wesley M. E. Church

The committee on arrangements for the Easter Sunday activities at the Wesley M. E. church have their work well done. The Sunday school program is from 10 a. m. to 11. The special Easter music, directed by Professor Dillon, will begin at 11. The Easter address by the pastor begins at 11:30. The christening of the children will be at 12:15, followed immediately by the reception of members into the church. All these services are on the basis of the present standard of time.

In the evening the names of 45 men in their country's service will be read by Mr. Smith, pastor's assistant, and a 15-minute special service for them will be held. The special music and address will be heard in the evening also.

Interesting Lecture on Alaskan Dogs

The Lincoln Auditorium was packed to the limit last night when Mrs. Esther L. Darling delivered her lecture on "Her Dogs in the War Zone," under the auspices of the public library.

It was thoroughly interesting and ably related. The beautiful colored slides added to the interest and showed the heroic work being done by those noble animals in the snow-bound districts of France, hauling ammunition, just as they and their like hauled the gold over the endless snow plains of Alaska, then saving wounded, who otherwise would have perished.

Quite a tidy sum was realized, which will go toward buying books for the Camp Library.

Red Cross Whist by Improvement Club

The ladies of the South Richmond Improvement Club will give a benefit whist party for the Red Cross at Bank Hall tonight. The prizes will consist of a $2.50 merchandise order for every five tables. The score cards to be 25 cents.

The able committee for this affair consists of Mrs. Marie Ripley, chairman; Mrs. Edward, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Carey and Mrs. Eckland.

Interclass Games at Richmond High

The battle for the championship honors still continues unabated at the high school, with four contending forces in the field.

Last Tuesday the seniors trimmed the juniors in a hotly contested game to the tune of 34-30. It was a very close game and five minutes extra play was necessary to break the tie.

Then Thursday afternoon the freshmen turned around and lambasted the seniors 30 to 10. The freshies had it all over their elder brothers in this battle. Gerald Follett, dispatches state, was the star of the game, using football tactics and going through the opposition like a snow plow.

LUIZ ELECTED TRUSTEE

A. M. Luiz was elected to succeed Frank Weber on the board of school trustees of San Pablo yesterday, he receiving 80 votes while Mrs. Beckman, the other candidate, received 52.

Pneumonia was fatal to 3-year-old Lawrence Alex. Figeriredo, 142 Twelfth street. The lad's father passed away only last November. Funeral arrangements are being made by Undertaker Bert Curry.

Elaborate Program at First M. E. Church

A very interesting and elaborate program has been arranged for the Easter Services of the First Methodist Church Sunday morning by a committee consisting of Mrs. C. E. Adams, Mrs. J. P. Smith and Miss Vesta Gillette.

The program is as follows:

Part 1; Calvary: "Voluntary," an organ solo by Miss Irene Conn; "There is a Green Hill Far Away," vocal solo by Miss Vesta Gillette; "Christ on Calvary," recitation by Ruth Weston; rectative exercise, "The Gethsemany of the Nation," by Mrs. Adams's class.

Part 2; Easter story: Processional; "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," by Mrs. Gillette's class; "An Easter Song," recitation by Argyle Adams; hymn, "Day of Resurrection;" recitative exercise, "The Fact of the Resurrection," by Mrs. C. Bradley's class; "Master's Here," song by the classes of Misses Ida Bradley and Retha Arnold; responsive reading, "The Meaning of the Resurrection;" "The Easter Tidings;" recitation by Louis Shawl; hymn, "O Zion Haste Thy Mission High Fulfilling."

Part 3. New Life for the Nations. Recitative exercise, "Christ at Work in the Nation," by Rev. Calfee's class; hymn, "Crown Him with Many Crowns;" address by minister, "The Living Christ Among the Nations;" offering; reciative exercise, "Christian Voices of Prophecy," by Miss Nina Moody's class; unfurling of flag by the Boy Scouts and singing of Star Spangled Banner by congregation. Benediction.

Mme. Petrova at Richmond Theatre

"The Light Within" is a strong domestic drama in which Laurel Durand (Mme. Petrova) has to make two momentous decisions; she has to choose between saving her own son's life or those of many other children and later, between either her husband (whom she does not love) and the man she really loves when it is in her power to save one but not both.

The cast includes Thomas Holding, who played opposite Mme. Petrova in "Daughters of Destiny," recently shown at the same theater.

Otto Muller, erstwhile hardware merchant here, was in town yesterday. He is mining and farming now in Tuolumne county, and doing well.

committee has revealed, according to Senators who heard it, that the United States will do well to have twenty-five American built battle-planes in France by July 1. Two have been sent, the inquiry developed, fourteen have been completed and ready to go and about a dozen more are in the last laps of construction. In the Senate recently the statement was made that although the original program for 12,000 machines by July 1, the number would not exceed thirty-seven.

Standard Man Dies of Injury

Lester Norton, a Standard employe, died at Merritt Hospital in Oakland Wednesday evening, following an operation.

Norton had hurt his back at the works some time ago, when he fell off a roof there. He was sent to the Merritt Hospital by the company to repair the damage, but it seemed that the trouble was more serious than anticipated, and his death followed.

He leaves a wife and six children on Eighth street.
